

Willson & Pechacek, P.L.C. is pleased to announce two additions to its staff.

PAUL S. WILSON is a May, 2015 graduate of the University of Iowa College of Law and will be taking the Iowa Bar Exam on July 28th and 29th, 2015. Paul is originally from Clarinda, Iowa. He graduated Summa Cum Laude in 2012 of Northwest Missouri State University with a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science and a minor in History.

Paul was a 2014-2015 National Moot Court Team Member, a Moot Court Board Problem Writer, and a Moot Court competition finalist in 2014. In 2013, he was a Stephenson Trial Advocacy Finalist. Paul was also a Student Writer for the Iowa Law Review in 2013-2014.

Paul worked as a summer Law Clerk in the Jackson County (Kansas City, Missouri) Prosecutor's Office in 2014 and in the Missouri Attorney General's Office (Jefferson City, MO) in 2013. His primary focus is in civil litigation.

ERIC CHECKETTS will serve as a summer law clerk for Willson & Pechacek, P.L.C. Eric is a third year law student at the University of Iowa College of Law and will be receiving his Juris Doctor degree in May of 2016. He received his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Finance from Brigham Young University–Idaho where he was on the Dean's List.

Eric is currently President of the J. Reuben Clark Law Society and is a Note & Comment Editor for the Journal of Corporation Law at the University of Iowa College of Law. He was a Student Writer (2014-2015); and his work, "Taking Free Exercise the Second Mile: Why Hobby Lobby Fails to Go Far Enough" will be published in Volume 41.3 of the same journal.

Eric's current focus is in the operational side of law in business, estate planning, probate and real estate.
