

Staff photos/Chad Nation

Above, Phillip Willson poses in his office next to a few of the honors that have been bestowed upon him during his more than 60 years of service to the community and his profession. The Iowa Defense Counsel Association recently honored Willson with the Lifetime Member Award. Below, a smattering of recognitions Phillip Willson has received for his work with the law and the community, including the Iowa State Bar Association Award of Merit and recognition for his 47 years as a Council Bluffs Public Library trustee.

Willson found his calling through volunteering

CHAD NATION

CNATION@NONPARALLELONLINE.COM

Humble beginnings have helped a Council Bluffs attorney maintain a dedication to his profession and realize the blessings he has received.

Those same traits have helped Phillip Willson to be recognized by his peers.

The Iowa Defense Counsel Association recently honored Willson, a founding member of Willson & Pechacek PLLC, with the Lifetime Member Award.

While it is one of numerous recognitions Willson has received throughout his career, it is another reminder for him of how fortunate he has been to find the law as a profession.

