

Frank W. Pechacek, Jr.

Jamie L. Cox

WILLSON &
PECHACEK, P.L.C.
PARTNERS INSTRUCT

Frank W. Pechacek, Jr. and Jamie L. Cox, partners at Willson & Pechacek, P.L.C., Law Firm instructed county board of review members, county assessors, and county attorneys about "Property Tax Appeals and the Board of Review" at two board of review workshops in Osceola and Onawa, Iowa, on April 17 and 23, 2014.

Mr. Pechacek serves on the Boards of Directors of the Southwest Iowa Educational Foundation, Inc., the American Red Cross, Pottawattamie County Community Foundation, and Charles E. Lakin Human Services Campus Foundation. He is also the Treasurer and Finance Chair of the Iowa Law School Foundation Board of Directors. Mr. Pechacek is a frequent lecturer and speaker on such topics as property tax assessments, estate planning and corporate/business law matters. He is a member and past chair of the Iowa State Bar Association Business Law Council.

Mr. Cox serves on the Labor and Employment Law Section Council of the Iowa State Bar Association, and is a member of the Administrative Law, General Practice and Government Practice Law sections. He is also a member of the American Bar Association sections on Labor and Employment Law, Dispute Resolution, and State and Local Government Law. In 2013, Mr. Cox was a recipient of the annual 40 Under 40 Award, which honors 40 executives and professional men and women under the age of 40 in the Omaha, Council Bluffs, and Sarpy County area who have demonstrated creative leadership within the community.